Have you ever wanted to be a fly on the wall and get to listen in and experience what life is like in the day of someone else? Well, Cap K writes in such a way that makes a reader feel like they are a fly on the wall that gets to be apart of the author's first hand journey as he is going through and experiencing Israel. As he meets people, has various conversations, eats meals, makes decisions on what to do next and where to go and how, the reader gets to be an insider to all of this. The author is genuine, talks about every day life, and goes deep, sharing with vulnerability his thoughts and reactions to things people say and do and why he makes the choices that he does. What I most enjoy about this book is the inspiring way that Cap K relies on God's provision and direction for every decision and acts in obedience whether or not he knows the reason for it or the outcome. That is what faith is. Being sure of what we hope for and certain of what we do not see. Cap K is sure of God and this book shows his faith lived out daily and his love for God. The author gives us a glimpse of his heart for God and inspires one to dare to seek God and journey with God in ways that one has never done before. Read and be inspired my friends! :)

A Step of Faith: My Journey Through Israel is an incredible story of a young man who has decided to take a leap of faith and follow God's call. Leaving his family and friends behind, the author takes a step and goes alone to another country, nation, people, language, and culture because he feels the Lord's calling. This account is one of adventure, suspense, love, and obedience. This account will open your eyes to another culture and another land, to the land of Israel. A Step of Faith is packed with many instances where the Lord provides in amazing ways. Living a life for Christ isn't boring, although at times it can be mundane. If you truly trust God and wholeheartedly follow His leading, then you also will live a life more full than could ever be imagined.
