James Kavanagh, Waterford Press : Australia's Dangerous Animals: A Folding Pocket Guide to Potentially Harmful Species (A Pocket Naturalist Guide) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Australia's Dangerous Animals: A Folding Pocket Guide to Potentially Harmful Species (A Pocket Naturalist Guide):

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Watch out! By Cat Lover "Sally" This looks as though it will be easy to use when we go to Australia - lightweight, laminated, color photos and good descriptions. It has photos of potentially lethal animals and concise information on first aid. Of course, most recommendations involve seeking immediate medical attention - not surprising. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Five Stars By Beth M. Perfect for my grandson's school project. He was fascinated with the photos and information available on the brochure.

One of the most the most dangerous places for humans to live on earth, Australia is home to a variety of creatures that can severely injure humans on land and in the water. From the giant saltwater crocodile and great white shark to the tiny red-backed spider and dozens of poisonous snakes, travelers and residents alike now have a handy pocket reference that covers the creatures to watch out for, how to avoid encounters and basic first aid on how to treat different injuries. This beautifully illustrated guide highlights over 50 dangerous species. Made in the USA.

About the Author Zoologist Jim Kavanagh has made a career out of introducing novices to plants, animals, the sciences and world cultures. In addition to creating over 500 simplified nature guides, he has also authored guides to languages, cities and outdoor skills. An avid traveler and backpacker, Kavanagh's path has taken him around the world to many remote destinations including the upper , Africa, Australia, and the Arctic Circle (and this is just the As). He is also the author of a series of state-specific guides to common species and natural attractions and a children's book on evolution. With 650+ titles in print and 6.5 million copies sold, Waterford Press publishes the largest line of folding-format reference guides in the industry. Our mission is to connect people to the natural world by making knowledge about wildlife identification, outdoor recreation, travel, and safety and survival skills accessible to a wide audience.
