Andrea Inglis : Beside the Seaside: Victorian Resorts in the Nineteenth Century before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Beside the Seaside: Victorian Resorts in the Nineteenth Century:

This is a fascinating and original study of the social scene in Australia's leading 19th-century seaside resorts, featuring letters and diaries of the time, a beautifully illustrated book.

This charming little book, beautifully illustrated, has many fascinating things to say about the old-fashioned seaside resorts, especially Queenscliff, Sorrento and Lorne . . . A book with its bonnet on, with allure underneath. The Age About the Author Andrea Inglis is a teacher and historian at Loreto Mandeville Hall in Melbourne. Andrea still holidays on the Bellarine Peninsula, the site of her earliest beach memories.
