Princess Reem Al Faisal : Diwan Al Noor before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Diwan Al Noor:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Diwan Al Noor By Asif Khan Times have changed, but still bent to take black and white pictures shows the photographer wants to stand alone in the crowd. Great pictures and a unique style, awaiting her next book probably on India!

An excellent collection of black white photography by Saudi Princess Reem Al Faisal. In the Princess world, all solidity is a reflection of the light which gives it form and content. The orb is round because of the light which curls around it. The archway is tall because of the light which streams through it. Colour is only a distraction. By working in black and white the artist sees and renders to us the Divine light of her vision.
