Perfect for my familyBy KathleenI really like this guide book a lot. I'm traveling with my kids ages 8 and 11. The whole book is family focused which has made all of the difference. They even call out family friendly hotels. We just reserved a room the book described as a "magical, unique, 17th century building, once a tennis court" with a dog that greets guests as they arrive. Of course, the activities are family friendly and they even call out bits of history in a way that will interest the kids.
