No GPS on my bike so I got a map for every state I had to pass through. It did it's job and helped me get there and back.One additional comment: Call me old school but I love a good map. My auto GPS makes me dumber every time I use it. I find myself blindly following it's directions only to find that I could have saved time and gas by planing the route myself. I also seem to remember the directions better when I plot it out on an "old-fashioned" map.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. BauerI like the single state map in lieu of the ones in the atlas. It's a larger scale shows more of the "back" roads.
