An ingenious map concept. An easy to read map nicely showing all the prime tourist highlights, view points, parks, etc. Its very legible considering how much needs to be crammed into a small space. The outer cover is fairly durable laminated cardstock that will slip into a pocket easily. As some have noted the map that pops out is a bit delicate and wont take rough handling. Id give it a 5 star review except for the fact that the scale is presented as a ratio (1:13,000) rather than a linear scale in miles or kilometers. Not very handy when youre trying to figure out walking distances.

I loved this map, until I was actually in Edinburgh and the thing fell apart at all of the folding seams. The seams are perforated, which is great for tearing out sheets, but lousy for holding a folding pop out map together.

About the Author
PopOut is the unique, genuinely pocket-sized map which features our patented PopOut fold. It is this innovative design that allows our precise, easy to follow cartography to be right in your hand when you need it most.

Moreover, the origami fold means you can do away with that awkward, oversized map, making it a compact and discreet reference tool that doesn't shout tourist alert! PopOut was founded in 1993. Having spotted a need to cure what he calls 'Map Stress Syndrome' after watching numerous tourists around the City of Bath, England, battling with oversized maps, founder Derek Dacey recalled the invaluable miniature charts he used during his days as a commercial pilot. Aiming to bring this level of usability to the city map market, a small team of designers was recruited to realise what would soon become the PopOut. 1993 saw the release of the first ever PopOut Map Bath, which was sold in the gift and souvenir trade across the city. Hot on the heels of this initial success, a research trip to the USA culminated in a redesigned layout, combining strong photo images, high quality printing and laminated covers standards which are still adhered to today. That research trip also saw the birth of the first US destinations covered in the PopOut range Boston, NYC, Philadelphia and Washington DC. Launched in the new style in the US they enjoyed instant success in the gift and souvenir trade. Today, PopOut produces over 100 titles for major destinations and is loved by travellers the world over.
