It is useful for both the Chilean and the Argentinian sides of the region. The 1:500.000 general map on one side gives a good overview, and the more detailed 1:20.000 and 1:8.000 maps on the other side provide all the necessary detail one may need for planning and for orienting on site.

Discover El Calafate and El Chalten in Patagonia with this laminated road map published by DeDios. The best way to plan your trip, to prepare your itinerary, and to travel independently in this part of Argentina.
