However, it was not only a history of the Hotel, but also a history of the town of Ormond Beach.I was particularly interested in the history of the Santa Lucia Plantation. The log cabin, Talahloka, which is still standing, was my family's home in the early 1950's. A distant relative was also one of the owners of the Ormond Hotel.The pictures were superb and brought back many memories. It was almost a tearful moment to see the pictures of this beautiful structure being torn down. I wish it could have been restored instead of destroyed.This book answered questions that I had about the Hotel and it's history.
