World:

The exotic international locales of Ernest Hemingway's real-life travels and fictional adventures are compiled and vividly illustrated here. Follow Hemingway through the backstreet Parisian haunts of his expatriate years and into the sidewalk cafes he frequented with F. Scott Fitzgerald and Gertrude Stein, then travel to the walled, romantic streets of Pamplona for the running of the bulls, and be transported through the romantic -- yet manly -- world of Papa's fiction, as well as to the many, many places he lived, worked and played. * This handy folded map unfolds to a beautifully illustrated 24 x 30 inches.
