Pamela Watson : Esprit de Battuta before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Esprit de Battuta:

She used a bicycle to travel from Dakar, Senegal to Dar Es Salaam, Tanzania. I really enjoyed reading her account of her travels in Africa and found it very interesting. As a Returned Peace Corps Volunteer in Thailand, I could identify with her desire for adventure and her resourcefulness in carrying her plans out.

It's amazing what a person can do once they put their mind to it and I think this trip, as well as writing her book will be a highlight of her life. I think she did a marvelous job at doing both. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Aussie happy! By Rita Etal I ordered the book for a friend's birthday. I was so happy when I found the book as it's out of print and no bookstore, new or second hand had it in Australia. Ordered it through this amazing person and BAM! it arrived at my front door in mint condition - as promised. Thank you so much. You've made me happy. Thank you.

The author recounts her cycle journey across the continent of Africa, recalling the joy and the poverty, the beauty and terror of the peoples along the way. She describes the despair of the awful roads, life amid political unrest and village evenings.'
