National Geographic's Trails Illustrated map of Merced and Tuolumne Rivers is an essential travel companion for outdoor enthusiasts exploring this area just west of Yosemite National Park. Novice and experienced explorers alike will benefit from this expertly researched map, created in partnership with the U.S. Forest Service, National Park Service and others. In addition to Merced and Tuolumne Wild and Scenic Rivers, coverage includes many popular recreation areas in and around Stanislaus National Forest, including Calaveras Big Trees State Park, Tuolumne State Game Refuge, Interface Recreation Area, Stanislaus River's north, middle and south forks, Pinecrest Lake, Spicer Meadow Reservoir and Hells Kitchen. Hundreds of miles of mapped trails, shown with mileage markers, provide ample recreational opportunities within the forest for hikers, horseback riders and backpackers.
