S. Emmett Lucas : Mills' Atlas: Atlas of the State of South Carolina, 1825 before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Mills' Atlas: Atlas of the State of South Carolina, 1825:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Five StarsBy Julia A. BuchananThis is a valuable resource for anyone doing research in South Carolina in the 1820's 30's.

This reprint edition of MILLS ATLAS has an especially prepared history and introduction to these maps as well as considerable history about Robert Mills, the man and architect, prepared be Mr. Gene Waddell, formerly Director of the South Carolina Historical Society, Charleston. These maps, originally 23 inches by 29 inches in size, have been conveniently reduced in size to 11inches by 17 inches and folded to fit into an exquisitely gold-stamped simulated leather cover for book shelf or coffee table. The Districts for which maps are included are: Abbeville, Barnwell, Beaufort, Charleston, Chesterfield, Chester, Colleton, Darlington, Edgefield, Fairfield, Greenville, Georgetown, Horry, Kershaw, Lancaster, Laurens, Lexington, Marion, Marlborough, Newberry, Orangeburg, Pendleton, Richland, Spartanburg, Sumter, Union, Williamsburg and York.
