

(Download ebook) Mongolian-English/English-Mongolian Dictionary Phrasebook (Hippocrene Dictionary Phrasebook)

Mongolian-English/English-Mongolian Dictionary Phrasebook (Hippocrene Dictionary Phrasebook)

Aarimaa Marder

Download PDF / ePub / DOC / audiobook / ebooks*

DOWNLOAD

+

READ ONLINE

Aarimaa Marder : Mongolian-English/English-Mongolian Dictionary Phrasebook (Hippocrene Dictionary Phrasebook) before purchasing it in order to gauge whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Mongolian-English/English-Mongolian Dictionary Phrasebook (Hippocrene Dictionary Phrasebook):

0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. MongoliaBy chrisoThis dictionary is fine, but be aware that the Mongolian language uses the Russian alphabet plus a couple of added letters so there are sounds that we are not familiar with. Also none of the words are even close to English, it's not founded in the "romance" languages so it is harder to remember words.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Mongolian guests rated this a good bookBy W. R. JohnsonWe used this book when our Mongolian in-laws were visiting and the Mongolians said it was a good book (sain nom). It was a big help since we had no language in common.1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Simple but GoodBy bobIf you need a Mongolian-English dictionary for a quick trip, then get this dictionary. Otherwise look elsewhere. The number of words is limited. However, it's the only one with pronunciation help, grammar help and quick everyday reference words. It would be good for a traveler but not someone planning on staying in Mongolia long-term.

Mongolian vocabulary and phrases are given in both the Roman alphabet and the Mongolian Cyrillic script, enabling the user to pronounce words easily while becoming familiar with the script. Featuring: * 3,500 total entries * Basic Mongolian grammar * Travel-oriented phrases * Commonsense pronunciation * Interesting and helpful cultural information

About the AuthorAariimaa Baasanjav Marder was born in Ulan Bator, Mongolia. She is trilingual (Mongolian, Russian and English) and holds a M.A. degree in Liberal Arts from Mongolia State University. She taught Russian language and literature at secondary school level in Mongolia before moving to the United States three years ago. She resides in Mount Laurel, New Jersey.