Ross Wehner, Rene del Gaudio : Moon Spotlight Lima before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised Moon Spotlight Lima:

1 of 1 people found the following review helpful. Not worth $0.99By MonicaThis is definitely more a PAMPHLET than a book. I've been to Lima many times and was looking for some new info, but this pamphlet only covers the most obvious points of interest anybody would find on sites like Lonely Planet.I'm motivated to leave this review because I paid $6 for a pamphlet that weighs about 6 ounces. I could see this being useful as a giveaway to tourists coming through the airport. But $6? Ridiculous. Not even worth a buck if you have an internet connection.0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. not much infoBy jmfif you already have a Peru guide, you have this little booklet. I was hoping for more detailed Lima info as i was spending 2 weeks there for work. If you don't have the moon peru guide, you can probably get much of this information on-line or through tourism outlets once you get there. not many folks go to Peru to stay only in Lima, so if you're going to visit more of the country, get the Peru Moon guide and you'll have all you need. 0 of 0 people found the following review helpful. Don't waste your money. By flbVague and superficial. Top 10 sites of interest from other travel forums are not mentioned. Public transportation information is misleading if not downright incorrect.

Moon Spotlight Lima is a 60-page compact guide covering the best of Lima, including the Catedral, Casa de Aliaga, Museo Larco, and Barranco. Husband-and-wife writing team Ross Wehner and Rene del Gaudio offer their firsthand advice on must-see attractions and activities, and sightseeing highlight maps make planning your time easy. This lightweight guide is packed with recommendations on sights, entertainment, shopping, recreation, accommodations, food, and transportation, as well as helpful maps, making navigating this extraordinary city uncomplicated and enjoyable. This Spotlight guidebook is excerpted from Moon Peru.

About the Author Ross Wehner is the founder of Village Leaders, an organization that sends volunteers overseas to work with and learn from community leaders. Before that, he worked for seven years as a journalist in Peru and other Latin American countries. He has written for the San Francisco Chronicle, Mother Jones, Outside, and other publications, and has also worked as a wilderness educator for the National Outdoor Leadership School (NOLS). Ross holds an M.A. in Spanish and Latin American Literature from the University of Virginia. As an architect, Rene del Gaudio has long considered Machu Picchu to be the world's finest example of architecture integrating with a landscape. She holds an M.A. in architecture from the University of Washington in Seattle and currently works for Semple Brown Design in Denver, Colorado. Her designs have been published in Dwell and House Beautiful, which ranked her as one of the Top 25 Next Wave Designers in America. She is an avid backpacker and has traveled widely throughout Europe, Asia, and Latin America. Rene and Ross live in Denver and have two children, Sebastian and Francesca, and a fluffy white cat named Scout.
