Mountains, West (Regional Mountain Biking Series):

Forty-six rides in the western portion of New Hampshire.

From the Back Cover Here are thorough descriptions of 46 mountain bike rides in the western portion of New Hampshire's rugged White Mountains. Specifically, the trails are in an area bordered by Franconia Notch in the north and Ashland in the south. The information in this packable guide helps riders choose a trip that's appropriate for their fitness and skill level; makes it easy to find the trailhead; and helps the rider complete the trip safely, without getting lost.
