Edo Ankum : MUSTANG SALLY before purchasing it in order to gage whether or not it would be worth my time, and all praised MUSTANG SALLY:

Follow the Silk Road in a series of striking pictures. From Istanbul to Ankara, to Eastern Anatolia and across the border into Iran. Through the lesser known mountain region in the west, to legendary Isfahan, south into the desert to dusty Shiraz, and back north past Tehran. From there it's back to Turkey again, along the shores of Lake Van and further along the Syrian border towards Cappadocia and back to Istanbul.
